

Title: "This Year 2025, You Must Be, Gotta Be Born Again"

Pastor Dr. John Geeter

Scriptures: Genesis 9:3, John 3:1-15; Titus 3:5

By: Ms. Isabella Busenbark

Date: 01/5/2025

In Pastor Dr. John Geeter's sermon, the central theme is the transformative power of Jesus Christ and the life-changing impact of being born again. The message highlights that regardless of our past, God's Grace is sufficient to heal, forgive, and give us a new life. The sermon encourages us Christians to embrace the reality of our salvation, walk in our new identity, and fully trust in God's ability to bring about transformation. With personal testimonies and biblical examples, Pastor Dr. Geeter emphasizes that God is still active today, offering hope, healing, and purpose to those who seek Him.

3 Key Points:

1. The Power of God's Grace: Pastor Dr. Geeter reminds us Christians that no situation is too far gone for God to redeem. He uses personal stories to show that God's Grace is powerful enough to restore us, regardless of our past mistakes or hardships. This teaches us that we are never beyond God's reach, and His Grace is always available to heal and transform us. The message encourages us to have faith in God's unmerited favor and to trust that no sin is too great for His forgiveness. It also reassures us that we don't have to try to change on our own; God's Grace empowers us to live differently.
2. Our New Identity in Christ: The sermon stresses that being born again means we are made new in Christ, and all our past sins are forgiven. For us Christians, this is a call to reject the shame of our past and embrace the freedom that comes with being a new creation. We are called to live with confidence, knowing that God has washed away our sins and made us whole. Pastor Dr. Geeter emphasizes that this new identity is not just a spiritual change but a life-altering transformation. As Christians, we should see ourselves through God's eyes—free from the burden of past mistakes and equipped to live out our God-given purpose.
3. Living as Born-Again Christians: Pastor Dr. Geeter challenges us to live out the reality of being born again, not just in words but in action. For us, this means consistently aligning our lives with God's will, sharing the Gospel, and allowing the changes that come with salvation to be evident in our daily lives. Being born again is not a one-time event but an ongoing transformation that should influence every aspect of how we live. He reminds us that our actions should reflect the change that has taken place in our hearts, and we are called to be witnesses of God's power to transform. This is a call to live authentically, showing the world what it looks like to be truly changed by God's Grace.

Conclusion:

Pastor Dr. Geeter's sermon powerfully calls us Christians to recognize the incredible gift of salvation and the transformation that comes through being born again. We are reminded that God's Grace is sufficient to heal and restore, no matter our past. As new creations in Christ, we are encouraged to live with a renewed sense of purpose, confidence, and commitment to living out the changes that salvation brings. Through God's Grace, we can confidently walk in our new identity and share the Good News of Jesus Christ with the world around us. This sermon serves as both a reminder and a challenge for us to live fully transformed lives in Christ, knowing that God's work in us is ongoing and powerful.
